

Digital Millennium Copyright Act Policy

Gridley Communications, Inc. d/b/a Gridcom (hereinafter “Gridcom,” “our,” or “we) respects the intellectual property rights of others. Accordingly, our Customers may not use our network, systems, or servers to transmit, upload, download, post, or submit any content, images, or data in any manner that constitutes an infringement of third-party intellectual property rights, including under U.S. copyright law. Gridcom is committed to complying with U.S. copyright laws, and we require all Gridcom Customers using our service to do the same.

In operating our internet services, we may act as a “services provider” under the Digital Millennium Copyright Act (“DMCA”) and offer services as an online provider of materials and links to third-party websites. As a result, third-party materials not owned or controlled by Gridcom may be transmitted, stored, accessed, or otherwise made available using our services.

If you believe your work has been copied and posted, stored, or transmitted to Gridcom’s website in a way that constitutes copyright infringement, please submit a Notification to the following agent:

Gridcom - DMCA
Designated Agent for DMCA Notices

Notification:

The Notification of claimed infringement must contain the following written information:

- A description of the copyrighted work that you claim has been infringed upon;
- A specific description of where the material that you claim is infringing is located on the website;
- Your address, telephone number, and email address;
- A statement by you that you have a good-faith belief that the disputed use is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent, or the law;
- A statement by you, made under penalty of perjury, that the above information in your notice is accurate and that you are the copyright owner or authorized to act on the copyright owner’s behalf; and
- An electronic or physical signature of the person authorized to act on behalf of the owner of the copyright interest.

Upon receipt of a written Notification, Gridcom will respond expeditiously to remove or disable access to material Gridcom determines may be infringing and will follow the procedures specified in the DMCA to resolve the claim between the notifying party and the alleged infringing party who provided the applicable content.

Filing a counter-notification:

If a takedown notice under the DMCA regarding alleged copyright infringement involving material residing on Gridcom's system or network has been wrongly filed against you, you may submit a counter-notification to Gridcom's Designated Agent.

A valid counter-notification must be a written communication that includes all of the following elements:

- A physical or electronic signature;
- Identification of the material that has been removed or to which access has been disabled and the location at which the material appeared before it was removed or access to it was disabled;
- A statement under penalty of perjury that you have a good faith belief that the material was removed or disabled as a result of mistake or misidentification; and
- Your name, address, and telephone number, and a statement that you consent to the jurisdiction of federal district court for the judicial district in which the address is located, or if your address is outside of the U.S., for any judicial district in which the service provider may be found, and that you will accept service of process from the complainant.

Upon receipt of a valid DMCA counter-notification, Gridcom will forward it to the original complainant who submitted the DMCA notice alleging copyright infringement. The original complainant will then have ten (10) days to notify Gridcom that it has filed a lawsuit relating to the allegedly infringing material; otherwise, Gridcom will restore the removed material or cease disabling access to it.

In addition to the DMCA policies described herein, Gridcom also has no obligation to monitor its Services but may do so and disclose information regarding the use of the Services for any reason if Gridcom, in its sole discretion, believes that it is reasonable to do so, including, without limitation, to (i) satisfy laws, regulations, or governmental or legal requests, (ii) operate the Services properly, or (iii) protect itself and its Customers and users. Gridcom may immediately remove material or information from Gridcom's servers, in whole or in part, which Gridcom, in its sole and absolute discretion, determines to infringe another's property rights or to violate Gridcom's Acceptable Use Policy at LINK.

NOTE: The information on this page is provided to you for informational purposes only and is not intended as legal advice. If you believe your rights under U.S. Copyright law have been infringed, you should consult an attorney.
